ta

EVANSVILLE, INDIANA, THURSDAY, JANUARY 18, 1814.

NO. 8.

NEW THE EVANSVILLE JOURNAL. PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY

BY W. H. CHANDLER.]

TERMS: 50, In Advance-$3 00, at the end of he year .- Advertisements inserted at $1 00 for three insertions of 12 lines, and 25 cents for each continuance.

THE DEPARTED.

Tie sweet to believe, of the absent we love, we miss them below, we shall meet them above The departed! the departed! They visit us in dreams; And they glide above our memories. Like shadowe over streams; But where the cheerful lights of home In constant lustre burg. The departed-the departed Can never more return! The good, the brave, the beautiful-How dreamles is their sleep. Where rolls the dirge-like music Of the ever tossing deep: Or where the mournful night-winds Pale Winter's robe have spread, Above their narrow palaces,

In the cities of the dead! I look around, and feel the awe Of one who walks alone Among the wrecks of former days, In dismal ruin strown; I start to hear the stirring wunds From the leaves of withered trees, For the voice of the departed Seems borne upon the breeze. That solemn voice! it mingles with Each gay and careless strain; I scarce can think Earth's minstrelsy Will cheer my heart again. The glad song of the summer waves, The thrilling notes of birds, Can never be so dear to me As their remembered words sometimes dream their pleasant smiles Still on me sweetly fall; Their tones of love I taintly hear

My name in sadness call: I know that they are happy, With their angle plumage on; But my heart is very desolate To think that they are gone!

Ma. Epiron-Among other high qualificaentatives of the U.S., it is said he is an elegant writer of verse. It is understood, that in consequence of his powers of versification, the forme r mede of official announcement will be abandoned, and instead of the usual formula" Mr. Speaker a Message from the Senate," the Doorkeeper will addess the Speaker in verse, as thus:

MR. SPEAKER:

.In vile PROSE to addess you, day after day. but now that we Locos have in power combin'd, We'll show the good people we'er far more re-

And since with the Nine I was put out to nurse. Henceforth I will address you in elegant verse. Then know, Mr. Speaker, there stands very near The Clerk of the Senate, who would fain claim your ear,

With patience he waits, in the hope you'll be

And direct that forthwith, he shall his message to deliver.

NOBLE SENTIMENT .- Judge Story, in a late charge to a grand jury in Rhode Island, said: "Carry with you, in your hearts, gentlemen, to the grave, the principle, that next to the duty which you owe to God, there is none higher or more sacred than that which you owe to your country."

The following admirable Impromptu was written by a true hearted Whig of this State,on witnessing the spirited movements all over the tan? Country, in favor of Mr. CLAY .- Newbernian.

In ancient Fable it is said, That gazing on Manusa's head, Would change the gazer, blood and bone, Into a mess of solid stone; Looking at Tyner's head they say, Terns the beholders all to CLAY.

GETTING RICH.

Keep at it; dig, dig,if you would become rich; stop for nothing; drive ahead; neglect friends; despise the poor; scorn benevolence; wear out your constitution, and, as sure as you live, wealth will pour in upon y u like a lood. But remember-it must be a comfortable reflection, that you have worn yourself out in accumulating property, while death will soon stare you in the face. You who would be rich-who leave no part untried to add to your coffers—do not forget, we pray you, that you must die, and leave your property to other hands. Tell us, would it not be better to enjoy life, by having everything that is really necessary, in doing good to others, will be tenfold more happy, enjoy more of the happiness of life and live to a grater age, and die in perce. Portland Tribune.

The following is from the Mobile Herald.

a run of custom, we will show you one who males, nearly all of whose were summers to does! No, Bill, all that here short nows pro- has a long-not to high the bridge with new illing, of Monetiger to one of the con- out majority and he a little flow that the proper with new illing, of Monetiger to one of the con- out majority and he a little flow that the proper with new illing, of Monetiger to one of the convent fer advertising.

MUNGO MACKAY, THE PRACTICAL | the prayer was said, the sermon delivered in | DEFINITION OF "FREE TRADE" BY In a Revolution successfully commenced, | JOKER.

tical joking—of all the inveterate manufacturers of mischief in this line of acting, the of universal benevolence; on the pleasures most systematically troublesome that ever I Boston, on Massachussetts Bay. Others follow the sport as most men follow the hound charities of life, by which the thorny paths were his trade. With them it is the by-play; with him it was the business of life. It was food and raiment to him; he could not exist without a plot; agains the tranquility of the neighborhood he laughed but when others were in a rage andenjoyed to mark when those around him were suffering from the result of his inventive genius. His father died just as he had grown to man's estate, leaving him a comfortable independence; and from that period he passed his days and nights in crusade against the good people of Boston. He was an Ishmaelitish wit; and truly "his hand was against every man, and every man's hand against him;" and the hand of every woman too, from Charles river to South Boston, and for many miles round the villages. by a semicircle of which the ancient copitol of the land of steady habits is enclosed.

Faneuil Hall, and the rain fell in such tor- you? You appear to be unwell." rents that Bunker Hill was nearly washed open the pores, while the former goes directly to the heart. In the midst of the rumbling element a tallfigure might be seen wend ing stealthily along the narrow streets and lonely alleys, shod with a pair of fisherman's eyes. The fair Sanaritan, seeming to rejoice boots, and enveloped in a hugh pea-jacket in this first opportunity of practising what for India-rubbers and Mackentoshes were had been so recently preached, appeared to adopt; and if their policy present it will be a so recently preached, appeared to adopt; and if their policy present it will be a so recently preached, appeared to adopt; and if their policy present it will be a so recently preached, appeared to adopt; and if their policy present it will be a so recently preached, appeared to adopt; and if their policy present it will be a so recently preached, appeared to a so recently preached distance from the town; and, the family being some time in bed, knocked violently at crease them a thousand-fold if she would, as demanded who was there.

'I am glad of that, for the night is very portance to communicate to him?

am the person that you want."

It erst was the custom when Whigs bore the Mackay, I am somewhat deaf, and the spout vulsively grasped the nose. was Nutt?

*Certainly I did; and I wish you would nake haste to communicate whatever you lave to say, for I have nothing on but my through me nation cold."

and childless, worth ten thousand dollars?" At this question a long pointed white-night stant,together with the shirt collar that fol- above.

owed it, was saturated with rain. 'What did you say about an uncle and en thousand dollars? There is my uncle

'Oh, nothing as yet, till I am certain of my man. There may be a good many Nutts about nere It is J. Nutt I want."

'I am the man,' said the voice in the night-There is no mistake. There's not a nearly touched the green palings in front of to hear. two faces, for by this time there was a fe- as you have! male peeping over Nutt's shoulder, beaming with the anticipation of good fortune to

'Well,' said Mackay, deliberately, 'I supsay it was my fault.'

'No, certainly not,' cried two voices from

'You say your name is John Nutt do devil crack you!

slmmed down with a violence that bespoke could plead the act of limitation." rage and disappointment, a loud horse laugh assisting the poor and needy, and in laying up a treasure above? Just believe it, and you cal jokes turned on his heel to trudge homeward through the mist, as the good woman Square" last evening, we overheard two felinside was going in search of the tinder box lows who sat there discussing very profound- pean countries thro' which he travelled .to enable her to hunt up dry chemises, shirts, by the leading party political measures of the We find the following editorial correspondand night-caps.

One pleasent Sunday morning, Mackay went to church betimes, took his seat in a you Jim?" said one of them.

was full a croud wing. The order was sone, for fellow has take."

the preacher's best style. He dwelt par-Of all the devotees to the science of prac- ticularly on the acquirements of the great > its way to every heart." sensibly affected; he wept with them; the moon, or the stars that glitter in the firmable their rocks, excepting their rocks, excepting their Ruler, is now glazing with the chill of their Ruler, is now glazing with the chill of But while every one was busy with their never will exist. Trade implies, at least when at times they descend like a tornado death, and his soul is passing from the Visihandkerchiefs wiping away the water that never will exist. Trade implies, at least heart! it always melts at any mysterious sor- on one side, and restrictions, prohibitions my hat," and the air was compounded of use of my arms. Though my tears have ure in which there is enough of the latter to of the paster, I have not the power to wipe er incarcerated in a jail, after a long time the border of Persia or Tartary, any where, and herald the approaching of the Skeleton them away.'

In an instant a fair hand was thurst into a reticule and a whiter haudkerchief, scented with otto of roses, was applied to Mackay's unknown in those days-until it halted un- polish them with right good will. When adopt; and, if their policy prevail, it will der the window of a lonely cottage at some she had done, Mackay looked unutterable the door. At first, his rude summons were it wanted it very much, condescend to wipe unanswered; but after repeated thumps a his nose. The novelty of the request was bed room window was thrown up, and a voice thought nothing of: the widow was proud of article in "Hunt's Merchants' Magazine," the promptitude she had displayed in succor- for July, on the "Progress of Population and 'Pray, sir,' said Mackay-for it was he- ing the distressed and to a person who had will you be kind enough to tell me if a per- done one kind action the second seems alwill you be kind enough to tell me if a person and second seems at ways easy. Her white hand and still whiter book? Ways easy. Her white hand and still whiter by Professor Tucker:

Son named Nutt, lives in this neighbor-handkerchief, were raised to Mackay's cut-handkerchief, were raised to Mackay's cut-lives of popular in-lives of popular in-li 'To be sure he does,'replied the voice from he window, 'he lives here.'

water: but the moment it was completely ensured by the census as a branch of manufable the mother of the people. stormy, and I have something of great im- ring-it was, in fact, more like a neigh. The cupied, not only with worldly affairs, but minister paused in giving out the hymn; the with the events of the passing hour. It keeps Of great importance !- of great importance deacons put on their spectacles to see what every part of the country informed of all did you say? I know of nothing very impor- could be the matter; and in instant, every that has occurred in every other, that is liketant that can concern me at this hour of the eye was turned upon Mackay and the fair by to touch men's interests or their sympanight:—but what ever it is let us hear it. I Samaritan, the latter of whom being so intent thies; volcanoes, earthquakes, tempests, con-sities well, and a single glance was sufficient loss of pocket book Every discovery in been played for their amusement. A gene- bandry or household economy, in medicine shirt and night cap, and the wind is whistling rul titter ran round the place, 'nods and becks or cosmetics, real or supposed, is immediate-Have you got an uncle in Boston very old day. Men held down their heads, and laugh- any pursuit of life, whether in catching cambric into their mouths, which had been running, jumping or walking. There scarce ap was thurst out of the window, and in an so recently applied to the sparkling fountain ly can be an overgrown ox or hog make its tored, the hymn sung, the blessing given alded through the land. Here we learn evamid stifled noises of various kinds, when ry legislative measure, from that which es-Wheeler-very old and very aich-but what the congregation rose to depart. The wid-tablishes a tariff to that which gives a penow, up to this point, feelingly strong in the sion-every election or appointment, from a consciousness of having per ormed a virtu- president to a postmaster—the state of the ous acting upon a good-looking face, heeded market, the crops and the weather. Not a one of his paralytic hands, and took his hat city pays for his loaf or his beefsteak, and man for twenty miles round of the name of from a peg above his head, and with the oth- what he gives, in fact for all he eats, drinks Nutt but me; and besides my christian er began searching his coat-pocket for his and wears. Here, deaths and marriages, name is John, and I have an uncle in Bos- gloves. Though the unkindest cut of all crimes and tollies, fashions and amusements, By this time the whole back and sleeves them on, and opened the pew door, turned, life. Here, too, we meet with the speculaof the shirt were out of the window; and the and put this question, in a tone the most insin- tions of wisdom and science, the effusions of tassel at the end of the white-night-cap uating, but still loud enough for fifty persons the house; and, had there been light enough | 'It is not, madam, a much greater pleasure to have seen, a painter might have caught to operate upon a fine looking Roman nose an attitude of anxiety, and face-or rather like mine, than upon such a queer little snub town in the United States: or that the wis-

REASONS FOR NOT PAYING FOR A NEWS-PAPER.-The Richmond "Christian Advoose I may venture to speak out, you cannot cate" publishes the following extract from a

"Please say to the Editor of the Richmond Christrian Advocate that it would doubtless be well to erace the name of C. C. from his books, and give up as gone that $7 60 .-He says, in the first place he never ordered Well, then, all I have to say is -may the the paper, and if he did he never got it, and if he did, 'twas as an agent: and besides he The two heads were drawn in like light- thinks he paid for it long ago, and if he did'nt ping from the rain; and, as the window was he's got nothing to pay, and if he had he

Home Protection .- Passing "Lafayette

'You is in favor of 'home protection' is n'

MR. CLAY.

The following extract is from a speech of Mr. Clay, delivered in the Senate in 1832, which arises not only from clothing the naked in defence of the American System. It heard of was Mungo Mackay, of the town of and feeding the hungry, but from attention very clearly defines free trade, according to ates? Where is the alliance between Li-

"When gentlemen have succeeded in their between Polano and Russia? The mouna dry eye in the place, the appeal had found tion of the American System, what is their substitute? Free trade! Free trade! The wind blew as though it would blow down old 'Pray, sir, is there anything the matter with will remain undisturbed. It is indeed, pos-> Gentlemen deceive themselves. It is not free trade that they are recommending to our acceptance. It is in affect, the Brition of Great Britain."

THE NEWSPAPER PRESS .- Extract from an upon her object, or so confounded by the flagrations and explosions. Nor, in attend-Speak a little louder if you please,' said general notoriety she had acquired, still con-No form of human suffering escapes it nomakes such a noise. Did you say your name There were hundreds of persons in that tice, from the miseries of war, pestilence and hurch who knew Mackay and his propen- famine, to the failure of a merchant, or the to convince them that a successful hoax had science or art, every improvement in husand wreathed smiles' were the order of the ly proclaimed, as are all achievements in ed: and the ladies had to stuff the scented whales or shooting squirrels, or in riding, appearance on a farm, or even an extraordi-At length something like order was res- nary apple or turnip, but their fame is hernot the gaze of the curious nor the smiles of snow is suffered to fall, or a very hot or very the mirthful; but what was her astonishment cold day to appear, without being recorded. was yet to come, for Mackay having drawn exhibit the every-changing drama of human sentiments, and the sallies of wit: and it is not too much to say, that the jest that has been uttered in Boston or Louisville, is, in a little more than a week, repeated in every dom or the pleasantry, the ribaldry or the coarseness, exhibited in one of the halls of congress, is made by the periodical press to give pleasure or distate to one hundred thou-

Nor is its agency limited to our own concerns. It has eyes to see, and ears to hear, all that is said and done in every part of the globe-and the most secluded hermit, if he only takes a newspaper, sees, as in a telescope, and often as in a mirror, everything that is transacted in the most distant regions; nor can anything memorable befall any considerable part of our species, that is not forthwith communicated with the speed of steam, to the whole civilized world.

POLAND.

information as to the condition of the Euro-

(N. O. Ple Shop they would shake hands if they could mittees upon their enemies. These men love freethe orator, like a second Moses, had, by the two parties. To be free, it should be fair, dom with a spirit that makes life no boon strokes of his eloquence, caused to gush equal and reciprocal. But if we throw our without it, and it has been well confirmed. He is dying! The light of the breaking from their flinty hearts, Mack held his arms ports wide open to the admission of foreign that there are many of them who bear their day falls dimly through the half closed shut stiff and strait while half a glass suffused his arms stiff and strait while half a glass suffused his face. He riggled, fidgeted, looked confused and interesting, but raised no hand, searched for no handkerchief, and seemed to be in deep distress. At length a young widow be complete netil foreign powers shall have lady, who sat beside him, remarked that he was ill at case and (Heaven bless the female was ill at case and (Heaven bless the female removed theirs. There would be freedom their rock bound heights, or penetrate their beavens, is palid and was, the cheeks are heart! it always melts at any mysterious sory a semicircle of which the ancient copitol of the land of steady habits is enclosed.

One cold, raw night, in the year 18—, the
One cold, raw night, in the year 18—, the
One cold, raw night, in the year 18—, the
One cold, raw night, in the year 18—, the
One cold, raw night, in the year 18—, the
One cold, raw night, in the year 18—, the
One cold, raw night, in the year 18—, the
One cold, raw night, in the year 18—, the
One cold, raw night, in the year 18—, the
One cold, raw night, in the year 18—, the
One cold, raw night, in the year 18—, the
One cold, raw night, in the year 18—, the
One cold, raw night, in the year 18—, the
One cold, raw night, in the year 18—, the
One cold, raw night, in the year 18—, the
One cold, raw night, in the year 18—, the
One cold, raw night, in the year 18—, the
One cold, raw night, in the year 18—, the
One cold, raw night, in the year 18—, the
One cold, raw night, in the year 18—, the
One cold, raw night, in the year 18—, the
One cold, raw night, in the year 18—, the
One cold, raw night, in the year 18—, the
One cold, raw night, in the year 18—, the
One cold, raw night, in the year 18—, the
One cold, raw night, in the year 18—, the
One cold, raw night, in the year 18—, the
One cold, raw night, in the year 18—, the
One cold, raw night, in the year 18—, the
One cold, raw night, in the year 18—, the
One cold, raw night, in the year 18—, the
One cold, raw night, in the year 18—, the
One cold, raw night, in the year 18—, the
One cold, raw night, in the year 18—, the
One cold, raw night, in the year 18—, the
One cold, raw night, in the year 18—, the
One cold, raw night, in the year 18—, the
One cold, raw night, in the year 18—, the
One cold, raw night, in the year 18—, the
One cold, raw night, in the year 18—, the
One cold, raw night, in the year 18—, the
One cold, raw night, in the year 18—, the
One cold, raw night, in the year 18—, the
One cold, raw night, in the year 18—, the
One cold, raw night, in the year 18—, the One cold, raw night, in sible, that our industry and commerce would has grown stronger and stronger since the of the might of the Hero's mind, while the Ah, madam, breathed Mackay, in a whisrents that Bunker Hill was nearly washed and unjust state of things: for, such is the along the length of the face, the heaving flexibility of our nature, that it bends itself spirit of his generals. An order sends the chest and throat straining with the death ratmy hat," and the air was compounded of that delightful admixture of frost and moist- flowed in answer to the touching sentiments to all circumstances. The wretched prison-

how long could Russia rely upon such an ar-whose hearts are with their old allies though tion,-severed them from their old associ-ecomes reconciled to his solitude, and reg where the service is hardest and the miles God. larly notches down the passing days of his will count the most between home and a And around him gathered the friends of battle field, and there compelled to serve ten his path, and the sharers of his triumphistence, but few-not one man of a hundred, and eagle eye, there CRITTENDEN and Ewever setting eyes again upon the home of his inc and Granger, men of mind from all system of conscription is more dreaded in face stamped with genius, and marked with lead substantially to the recolonization of the summons to the creator, and one is a sudden summons to the creator, and one is a sudden summons to the creator, and one is a sudden summons to the creator, and one is a sudden summons to the creator. erable victim to the grave. To avoid con-scription, therefore, many young Poles fly in the field, after having battled with ene-

THE LARGEST DIAMOND.

er Abaite, about ninety-two leagues to N. W.

ery is romantic:over a bed of gold, every valley contained inexhaustible mines of diamonds. An impres sion of this kind enabled these man to sopport the horror of their fate; they were constantly sustained by the hope of dicovering terrible night of Tippecanoe were again some rich mine. They wandered about for nearly six years in vain, but fortune was at the yell of the savage and the gleam of the last propitious. An excessive drought had laid dry the bed of the river Abrite, and here, led his riflemen to the quick struggle of life while working for gold, they discovered a for life; again he shouted the watchword of diamond of nearly an ounce in weight .-Overwhelmned with joy, they resolved to lips of the dying man, as again he beheld proceed, at all hazards to Villa Rica, and the banner of stars and stripes in triumph. trust to the mercy of the crown. The governor, on beholding the magnitude of the lips-his hands clutch nervously at the vacual gem, could scarcely credit the evidence of air. senses. He immediately appointed a commission of the officers of the diamond district to report on its nature, and on their pronounwhen Mackay arose from his seat, lifted up We may here learn what every man in every cing it a real diamond, it was despatched to the rifle winds up from the green woods, and Lisbon. The sentence of the three condem-nados, was immdiately reversed. The value plain. Then the terrible contest! the sweep of this celebrated diamond has been estimat- of Dick Johnson's mounted Riflemen in of three hundred millions sterling. It is un- eye, and the old Hero, would shout with joy cut, but the late King of Portugal, who had but the death rattle is in his throat, and the a passion for precious stones, caused a hole death dew on his brow. to be bored through it, in ordert to wear it suspended about his neck on gala days.

1670, thus describes some men of this day, ararchy shall pass like a pall of gloom over and in drawing their character, he has, as with the land, and yet the fiat has gone forth, God a pencil of light, drawn the characters of the has spoke it, and the Hero dies, ere yet the ohn Tylers of the present day;

est and most odious things imaginable, and natural vigor, and the Past and Future mingthat not only in defiance of conscience, but led to his vision, then the thought of his shall even allege conscience itself as the ve- of the trust placed in his hands by the peo-ry reason for the doing them—So that such ple, burdened his soul, and with the last boon a grace and as bold a front look the them out -I ask nothing more! Mr. Brooks, continues to give interesting world in the face, as if they expected thanks for such villanies, as a modest malefactor would scarce presume to expect a pardon of the Poles:

The Poles are under a most cruel system of conscription, are torn from their to Washington to obtain his object but being the condition the redress a torn from their to Washington to obtain his object but being the condition to the condition to the condition to washington to obtain his object but being the condition to the condition to washington to obtain his object but being the condition to the condition to the condition to washington to obtain his object but being the condition to the conditi

DEATH IN THE WHITE HOUSE.

FROM THE CITIZEN SOLDIER.

my,-or upon troops like those in Findland, TREAD sofily with a solemn footstep, whisper your words in a low voice, and let your a cruel policy has politically,-not in affecreath be hushed; for the air of the cham is heavy with death, and the faces of all von beria and Russia, Turkey and Russia, Georsee are stamped with grief, and the suppr gia and Circassia and Russia any more than ed sob of the women, and the deep death low the sport as most men follow the hound or cultivate music—as a recreation; but Maclaw might be said to follow it as though it loss the critics in such matters, "there was not tion of the critics in such matters, "there was not tion of the American System, what is their never have been conquered. By a sacrifice never have been conquered. By a sacrifice is still and sad and fearful—for the HERO is of life, the extent of which the world can dying. His keen eye which a month ago, never know,—for the proclamation of defeat they are met the gaze of millions, hailing him, in all All Mackay's immediate neighbors were sensibly affected; he wept with them; the sensibly affected; he wept with them; the moon, or the stars that glitter in the firmable to the Awful Unseen years at least, they drag out a miserable ex- there was WEBSTER with his towering brow the other a sort of living death, which is to here gathered round the bed-side, to see endured till the decay of age sends its mis- the mighty man fight his last battle, and aftheir country forever, or until a better day mies more bitter than death, with slander, may dawn upon it, as soon as they reach the with falsehood, with low calumniation, the age when the law can command their serv-

No diamond is known to exist so large as steep pathway of human ambition; a month that of the King of Porugal, found in the riv- ago and his name had gone forth to all the world, as the Ruler of the Great Land of the of Sierro de Frio. The history of its discov. New World Freedom; a month ago he had stood on the Capitol, and his gaze had been Three Brazilians, Anto de Souza, Jose Fe. met by the gaze of millions, and the earthix Gones, and Thomas de Souza, were sen- quake short of a free people had sounded tenced to perpetual banishment in the wild. in his ear and filled the clear heavens above, est part of the interior. Their sentence was and now--the short space of a single moon cruel one; but the region of their exile was had waned - the insign a of Power had scarce the richest in the world; every river tolled grown cold—the last shout was yet sounding in the car, and he was summoned by a mightier than the kings, or the people, to the throne of the Eternal God! He was dying! And the scenes of the around him, the dark and fearful night, when scalping knife were in his camp; again ha the charge, and a taint smile stole over the Hark-a faint murmur breaks from his

He is again beside the Thames. He is again with Johnson and Shelby; he is again beside PERRY, and again the blue smoke of ed by Rome de l'Isle at the enormous sum their hurricane charge again passes before his

Be is dying! for his death, the bright eyes of woman shall be dim with tears and aged men shall weep, and a nation will be sad An old writer, Southey, who wrote in and gloom and civil corruption and logalized ejoicings of the nation are lost to his ear, And in that terrible moment when his

"So fatally does the towering, aspiring humor of ambition intoxicate and upon mens' hands were interlocked with the hands of minds, that they shall do the basest, the vil- death, when his mind was armed to superwhich is yet more imprudent and intelerable, country arose on his mind, then the thought wretches shall out of mere conscience betray struggle of life, he imagined a man of no the country that bred them, and having first ble heart and resolute soul standing before practised a dispensing power upon all Law him, he imagined a successer of mind and within them, shall help to let them loose upon all Laws without them too: and when they |-"I wish you too understand the true prin have done shall wipe their mouth with as ciples of Government-I ask you to carry

Or Just hear what Mike Walsh says of the w in his Subterranean of the 16th, inch "Laws are made to protect the rich and READY FOR ANYTHING!-The George- punish the poor. A man who possesses Show us the man among us who is continually complaining for the want of trade, and at the same time is wondering those with an apparent degree of unnatural the same time is wondering those and at the same time is wondering the time of conscription, are torn from their to Washington to obtain his object but being the time of conscription, are torn from their to Washington to obtain his object but being the time of conscription, are torn from their to Washington to obtain his object but being the time of conscription, are torn from their to Washington to obtain his object but being the time of conscription, are torn from their to Washington to obtain his object but being to Washington to obtain his object but being the time of conscription, are torn from their town the time of conscription, are torn from their town the time of conscription. Does won think if there was, the town the time of conscription and the provinces of the Eupline and the provinces of the Eupline and the same time of conscription. Does were the time of conscription and the provinces of the Eupline and the same time of conscription. The conscription are torn from their town the time of conscription and the conscription